The TEXT :

- 1- William Ellis Green ,aged 82 ,was making his breakfast when he heard somebody in the garden . ' I went out of the back door and suddenly I saw this bloke running towards me .He pushed me out of the way and took my bicycle from the garden shed ' Mr Green did not resist,as he knew he would come off second best in a fight with the intruder.The bulglaar tried to cycle away ,but the tyres on the bike were flat so it was difficult to ride. 'He kept falling off the bicycle',said Mr Green, 'at least three or four times' . After the man had fled, Mr Green called the local police .
- 2- When they arrived ,officers asked him to describe the man, but instead he offered to draw them a picture. 'When Mr Green started drawing' said one of the police officers, ' I knew straight away who the bulglaar was ' In fact Mr Green had worked for more than 20 years in daily newspapers doing caricatures of Australian footballers. 'I had no difficulty in remembering the man's face because he was so close to me ' , he said.
- 3- Police cruised the neighbourhood in a patrol car with the sketch in search of the alleged burglar and they found him within half an hour . ' The cartoon was perfect likeness of the burglar', said another police officer.
- 4- Police believe that this is the first time they have ever caught a suspect with a cartoon sketch. Philip Rushford, a senior police constable,said that in the past some victims had used their mobile phones to take photographs at crime scenes ,but they had not been as effective.
