THE TEXT

Peter and Lois Griffin have three children: Meg, Chris and Stuart. Their daughter, Meg, is very lazy, and Chris, their son, is very fat. Stuart is their youngest child he's very naughty. His parents keep telling him that he mustn't play with dangerous things but he doesn't care. Living with the family is Brian, the dog.

The Griffins live at 31 Spooner Street in Quahog in a detached house with a green roof and yellow walls. We can see five windows and also two dormer windows on the roof. The two windows downstairs have got wooden shutters. On the ground floor, there's a sunroom with a glass door. There's also a garage on the left side of the house. Peter sometimes leaves his car in the driveway. Next to the garage there's a picket fence to keep animals out. Around the house there's a garden with a green lawn. There are some bushes and trees in the garden, but there are no flowers.

The house is spacious. The bathroom and the bedrooms are upstairs. The parents' room is clean and comfortable. The children have their own rooms. The rooms are kept clean and tidy by Lois. Only Stuart's room is sometimes a mess. He leaves his toys all over the floor. The kitchen and the dining room are downstairs. There's a staircase that leads to the first floor. Next to it is the living room where the family enjoys watching TV. The Griffins live in a friendly neighbourhood
